Indiana Memory is a statewide collaborative effort to provide access to the wealth of primary sources in Indiana libraries, archives, museums, and other cultural institutions. It is a gateway to Indiana's history and culture found in digitized books, manuscripts, photographs, newspapers, maps, and other media. As a portal to the collections, Indiana Memory assists individuals to locate materials relevant to their interests and to better appreciate the connections between those materials.

Indiana Memory's mission is to create and maintain a digital library that enables free public access to Indiana's unique cultural and historical heritage. Through the various digital materials available on the Indiana Memory website, the program seeks to enhance education and scholarship of Indiana's past.

Indiana Memory is a project of the Indiana State Library and is made possible through grant funding from the Institution of Museum and Library Services under the provisions of the Library Services and Technology Act.
